

Differential / Gear Box Service

Helps increase fuel economy, as well as avoid costly replacement of the gear box and components.

Changing the gear oil is the most commonly overlooked scheduled maintenance service. Manufacturer's recommend severe service intervals as early as 7,500 to 15,000 miles. Helps extend the life of the gear box and its components which may exceed $1,500 in replacement costs.